Customer Reviews

There are some marvelous piano methods available, but the Faber Piano Adventures series tops them all. I use Faber for all of my piano students. The James Bond Theme song in the 2B Popular Repertoire works especially well for a recital piece. I recommend this book.

My kids have used these books for their entire piano lesson time so far. The songs are fun, upbeat and challenging. They make learning mundane things like scales more interesting by putting them in song form. There are also many songs you will recognize. Great series.

These books in this series have been good for my daughter. She likes the songs for the most part. Her teacher didn't require them but was hopeful we would get them, and I'm glad we did.

Exceptional series - very well thought out and developmentally appropriate. Combines the right amount of moving ahead with review. All the pieces are appealing and student-friendly.

My daughter LOVES the fun, creative arrangements in this book. She now looks forward to practicing every day! Hooray!

This Piano Adventure Solo book made my piano student very happy! She loves the song selections! Thank you very much!
