Customer Reviews

I picked this up after a chance remark from a co-worker about playing duets for the season led me to look into what might be available. I would have liked to know more about this book before making my purchase, and so intend this review to be more informative for future shoppers than truly evaluative.. These twenty-one duets for flute (not 22 as the cover and title page state) include Away in a Manger (not the common "American" arrangement, but the Kirkpatrick "Cradle Song" version); Carol of the Drum; Deck the Halls; Ding Dong Merrily; God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen; Good King

Wenceslas; Hark! the Herald Angels Sing; In the Bleak Midwinter; I Saw Three Ships; Jingle Bells; Joy to the World; O Come All Ye Faithful; Once in Royal David's City; Pat-a-Pan; Silent Night; Sussex Carol; The First Nowell; The Holly and the Ivy; We Three Kings; We Wish You a Merry Christmas; and While Shepherds Watched (in a version which confused me as it matches neither the Handel variant in my Army hymnal nor the equally familiar 16th century tune in several other books I have including, for example, David Willcock's "Carols for Christmas"). The declaration in the subtitle that these are "arranged for two equal flutes" stems from the fact that each duet swaps out the melody line every few bars, so that both performers must be equally capable of playing the lead part. In practice, this means that almost every piece can also be performed as a solo by the simple expedient of casting one's eyes up or down to follow the melody line. In the few cases where there is any issue with this, it is because of transitional notes appearing in the bar to lead to or from the harmony part.
