Customer Reviews

An excellent selection of intermediate practice pieces, this volume also contains a useful analysis of each piece, with suggestions on how to approach difficult passages and fingerings. While the pieces are not terribly difficult, it is a useful book for any intermediate player to have in their library.

This book is intended for the inter-mediate player and supplies good finger input to the complex parts. Very well performed.

This book is definitely ranked in the Top 3 of the learning methods for intermediate clarinettists. Each piece goes along with detailed explanations and comments, which are highly helpful. Very good selection of music also. No doubt this is a must-have for any intermediate student.
